Summer Greetings from Your New AARSPA Co-Presidents Welcoming a Season of New Beginnings and Gratitude

We hope this message finds you in good spirits and enjoying every moment of this beautiful summer. There's an unmistakable energy in the air—a sense of renewal, anticipation, and the warmth that comes from seeing familiar faces, sharing old stories, and building new memories together. As the days stretch longer and the sun shines brighter, we're reminded of how fortunate we are to be part of such a dedicated and caring community.

It is with great pleasure and humble excitement that we introduce ourselves as the new co-presidents of the Anne Arundel Retired School Personnel Association (AARSPA). We are deeply honored to serve in this role, following in the footsteps of remarkable leaders who have guided this organization with wisdom and heart.

While the May meeting marked a new beginning for us as your co-presidents, it was also a time of transition elsewhere in our leadership team. We are delighted to announce the installation of Denise Andersen as our new treasurer and Deborah Turner as our new recording secretary. As we welcome these dedicated individuals, we look forward to the fresh perspectives and enthusiasm they will bring to their roles, ensuring the smooth and vibrant operation of our association.

Our gratitude goes out to our outgoing co-presidents, Sharyn Doyle and Tony Anzalone, whose guidance and service have left an indelible mark on AARSPA. Their leadership has set a high standard, and we are immensely thankful for the time, energy, and care they have given to this community.

We also extend our deepest thanks to Max Muller, our outgoing treasurer, and Zetta Hart, our outgoing secretary. Their attention to detail, organizational skills, and steadfast commitment have helped AARSPA flourish. We are grateful for their years of service and wish them all the best in their future endeavors.

One of the most inspiring moments of our May meeting was celebrating the recipients of our AARSPA scholarships. This year, four extraordinary seniors were honored, each embarking on the noble path of becoming a teacher. Their dedication, ambition, and compassion remind us of the bright future ahead for education, and we are incredibly proud to support them as they pursue their dreams.

We owe a special debt of gratitude to Tillie Barckley and the scholarship committee for their tireless work in reviewing applications, interviewing candidates, and ensuring that every scholarship is awarded to a deserving future educator. Their commitment to excellence and fairness is evident in the impressive group of scholarship winners we recognized.

Of course, none of this would be possible without the generosity of our members. Your financial contributions and attendance at our special dining out events make these scholarships a reality. You help nurture the seeds of promise in the next generation of teachers, and for that, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

As we look ahead to the coming year, we are filled with hope and enthusiasm. Our goals are to build on the strong foundation laid by our predecessors, foster vibrant connections among members, and continue our shared tradition of service. We invite you to participate in upcoming events, share your ideas, and help us chart the course for AARSPA's future.

We believe that by working together—drawing from our diverse experiences and united by our shared commitment to education—we can create a dynamic and supportive community for all retired school personnel. Whether you're interested in volunteering, attending our programs, or simply reconnecting with friends, there is a place for you in our association.

As we begin this new chapter, we do so with immense gratitude for the friends and colleagues who have supported AARSPA through the years. Thank you to everyone who attended our meetings, offered words of encouragement, or played a role in the success of our organization. Together, we have accomplished so much—and together, we will continue to make a difference.

Please feel free to invite any of your retired colleagues and friends who might be interested in joining us. Your personal invitation will go a long way to enriching our organization with new members and their invaluable experiences and insights.

Our inboxes are always open. Please feel free to reach out with your thoughts, questions, or simply to say hello. We look forward to meeting you at upcoming events and working side by side as we continue the important mission of AARSPA.

Scam Alert: FTC announces tips on avoiding free computer security scan scams

Beware of tech support scams disguised as "free" computer scans, especially if they claim to find security threats on your computer. The FTC warns against companies like Reimage and Restoro that use deceptive tactics to persuade users, including older adults, to pay for unnecessary software services. Always stay cautious and avoid clicking on suspicious pop-ups or responding to unsolicited contact from tech companies.

Welcome to Elizabeth, Pennsylvania and the Stone Gables Estate. Since 1877, the majestic Gothic Revival-style Star Barn has been a landmark in the area. Following dinner, be dazzled and delighted with musical merriment during a special holiday show. Next, we take a short drive to Middletown, Pennsylvania, and the National Christmas Center. Upon our arrival, take a self-guided tour through the center and discover the whimsy and fantasy, the magic and memories, as well as the history and traditions of Christmas. A mini-grant was awarded to Suzanne Zelenz-Dale of George Cromwell Elementary School. Suzanne is using the grant money to fund music activities for her students with special needs. Co-President Elect Kate Gilbert and Co-President Anthony Anzalone were on hand to make the mini-grant presentation.

Another Little Library! Thanks to Keith Hendrick, Bob Kanach, and Zetta Hart for the installation of this Library at Deale Elementary School. Special gratitude goes to Keith Hendrick, who constructed the Little Library.

Soon, school buses will be rolling, and parents will be celebrating the start of a new school year. Although we will not be returning, each of us remembers the students who lacked the necessary supplies to succeed in our class. We also recall using our own limited funds to purchase those supplies. The need remains, and it may be even more pressing than when we were in the classroom. Let's each contribute what we can to help both the students and teachers have what they need for a successful school year.

Since it has been several years since we last provided school supplies to the West County elementary schools, the committee will focus on that area this year. If previous years are any indication of the amount our members contribute, we should be able to help more than one school. Remember, whatever we purchase means a teacher doesn't need to supply it.

I have reviewed the school supply list of several elementary schools in that area to determine what students are expected to provide. While most of the items are the same as we expected of our students, some have changed with the times. Some of these items are ziplock bags, tissues, Scholastic children's dictionaries, whiteboard erasers, calculators, rulers, headphones that fit over the ear and plug in, thermal water bottles and lunch boxes, disinfectant wipes, and backpacks. Of course, all the usual supplies are also needed.

The Community Service Committee would like to thank you in advance for all that you do.

FREE SCHOOL MUSEUM NEWS

IN REMEMBRANCE

The AACPS employees in the Print and Design Shop recently made a monetary donation to the Anne Arundell County Free School Museum in memory of Carol Kirby. The gesture is not only appreciated but also serves as a reminder of a special AARSPA member, Carol Kirby, who chaired the Membership Committee for many years.

Bob Kanach and John Hammond installed a plaque recognizing the Free School Northern Catalpa Tree as an Anne Arundel County Champion, February 2025.

Paul Revere's Midnight Ride was recognized at the Free School on April 19, as part of the commemoration of the start of the American Revolutionary War and the Battles of Lexington and Concord.

Look who is sporting a new logo! At the Annual Business Meeting in May, MRSPA unveiled its new logo design, chosen after a series of Ad Hoc committee meetings with Herrmann Advertising. In an effort to attract new members statewide, this new advertising campaign also includes an updated website and ads featuring some of our members. MRSPA is working to help potential and current members better understand the opportunities the state organization has to offer. For example, a webinar has been added to the MRSPA website under News/Events - Resources to assist members with using Passport from AMBA. Check it out to see what discounts you may be missing!

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

Pre-Retirement Information Sessions

Pre-Retirement Chair Susan Baugher and Membership Chair Leslie Schell held two information sessions in May. The first was on May 1 in the Board of Education Board Room, and the second was on May 22 at the Severna Park Library. Both sessions provided details about AARSPA and all the ways we offer for engagement, along with copies of the latest newsletter and information about the Free School. In addition to local information, details about MRSPA were displayed on-site. Membership applications were available, and we signed up four new members on the spot, with others planning to mail in their applications later. This was our first attempt at this format, which we found successful. Many thanks to all the volunteers who dedicated their time at both locations.

Local Members

Thanks so much to the Local only members of AARSPA! You really outdid yourself in returning your renewal information forms. Marge and I spent an afternoon verifying all the information on your forms with the database.

Meet and Greet

AARSPA is sponsoring a Meet and Greet Breakfast on Monday, September 22, 2025, at the Severna Park Elks Lodge on Truckhouse Road from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. This event is primarily for new retirees of AACPS to come together and learn more about our wonderful organization. The new retirees will receive their invitation in the mail and hopefully join. Please encourage any new retirees you may know to participate in this event.

Eastern Shore (Delmarva) Luncheon

The annual get-together luncheon for members living in the Delmarva area may have taken place on a rainy day, but the folks at the Ocean Pines Yacht Club created their own rays of sunshine. This was the third luncheon event and by far the most successful, with 60 reservations made. A few people were unable to attend at the last minute. Co-President Anthony Anzalone introduced other co-presidents and Rick Wiles, who served as the last single president. Leslie Heiderman Schell encouraged those present to update their contact information, as work on a new directory will begin over the summer. She added two new memberships on the spot. Many thanks to Madlyn Scott and Bob Kanach for coordinating this spring gathering. A wonderful time was had by all!
